ADVISORY

Subject: Launching of New Vendor Area in CBC's New Website <https://cbcindia.gov.in> for Release Order Download, Creatives Download and Online Billing for Newspaper Agencies.

CBC is launching new Vendor Area in its New Website <https://cbcindia.gov.in> for Newspaper Agencies which will have the following features:

Release Order Download: New vendor login area offers a dedicated section where newspaper agencies can download release orders, which are documents containing instructions and details about advertisement.

Creatives Download: New section will provide a platform for newspaper agencies to access and download creative advertisement in PDF format which they can use in their publications.

Online Billing: New online billing system will enable newspaper agencies to view and manage their invoices and track their billing history.

Search and Filter Functions: A search functionality could help newspaper agencies quickly find specific release orders, creative assets, or billing information. Additionally, filtering options based on categories or date-ranges could further streamline the search process.

Please Note : There will be no physical bill submission after this new online billing system comes into force. However old bills will continue to be processed in both online and offline mode.

New Vendor login area for Newspapers will be available in CBC's new website <https://cbcindia.gov.in/cbc/vendor-login>

New system will come into force w.e.f. June 19, 2023.

Newspaper's login credential will remain same which they used at the time of rate renewal.
